

Haglund Syndrome — a Characteristic Cause of Posterior Heel Pain

EHY Hung,¹ WK Kwok,² MMP Tong¹

¹*Department of Diagnostic Radiology and Organ Imaging, Prince of Wales Hospital, and* ²*Department of Radiology, North District Hospital, Hong Kong*

Abstract

This report is of a 48-year-old man with a painful swelling of the left heel, who was diagnosed with Haglund syndrome. The characteristic radiographical and magnetic resonance imaging features are described.

Key Words: Achilles tendon; Bursitis; Calcaneus; Magnetic resonance imaging; Tendinopathy