A comprehensive tour of the iconic attractions of Kowloon and New Territories begins with a taste of Hong Kong history at Tsang Tai Uk, which has been listed as a Grade I historic building, followed by a visit at the Chi Lin Nunnery featuring traditional Tang Dynasty architecture. A moment of leisure and peace of mind can then be enjoyed at a landscaped Chinese garden, the Nan Lian Garden. The tour ends in a charming little corner of the city, the Bird and Flower Market. An extra bonus is the undisputed “King of Drinks” in Hong Kong — a cup of milk tea, and an irresistible egg custard tart as an afternoon snack.
